Group Medical Coverage

The Group Medical Coverage plan covers an overall annual limit of $250,000 for Group Hospital & Surgical, Group Outpatient Clinical, Group Outpatient Specialist and Maternity. The limit is on per individual and not shared between family.

The plan covers recognized costs of services or treatment which are recommended by a medical practitioner and are medically necessary and up to the reasonable and customary for the care and treatment of an injury or sickness, as determined by AIA, up to limits shown in the list of benefits. For the purposes of this plan, medically necessary and reasonable and customary is defined as:

“Medically Necessary” shall mean a medical treatment, services and/or supply provided by a Registered Medical Practitioner and/or Specialist covered under this Policy which are:

- (a) consistent with the diagnosis and customary medical treatment, service and/or supply for Sickness or Injury;
- (b) in accordance with standards of good medical practice; consistent with the current standard of professional medical care and with proven medical benefits;
- (c) not for the convenience of the insured, Registered Medical Practitioner or the Specialist, and unable to be reasonably rendered out of Hospital (if admitted for confinement); and
- (d) not of an experimental, investigational or research nature, preventing or screening nature.

“Reasonable and Customary” shall mean in relation to a fee, a charge or an expense, means any fee or expense which

- (a) is charged for medical treatment, medical supplies or medical services that are Medically Necessary and in accordance with standards of good medical practice for the care of an injured or ill person under the care, supervision or order of a Registered Medical Practitioner
- (b) does not exceed the usual level of fees or charges for similar treatment, supplies or medical services in Singapore, regardless of where the expense is incurred; and
- (c) does not include fees or charges that would not have been made if no insurance existed, as reasonably determined by AIA. In determining whether any particular Hospital/medical charge is a Reasonable and Customary charge, AIA may refer to any relevant publication or information made available regarding treatment in Singapore, such as fee benchmarks or fee guidelines for treatment by the Registered Medical Practitioner or other healthcare professional, or any such equivalent publication issued by or under the authority of the Ministry of Health (Singapore). AIA is not obliged to consider the fee benchmarks, guidelines or other applicable references relevant to treatment or hospitalisation occurring outside Singapore. AIA reserves the right to decline or adjust any and all benefits payable in relation to any Hospital or medical fees or charges which in the opinion of the AIA's medical director is not a Reasonable and Customary charge

The Reasonable & Customary clause shall not apply for overseas emergency treatment.

“Emergency” shall mean, non-routine services or treatment rendered for a serious medical condition resulting from Injury or Illness (as the case may be) which arises suddenly (including a sudden acute exacerbation of a chronic medical condition) and that could reasonably be expected, in the opinion of a Registered Medical Practitioner, to result in death of the Insured Person or serious impairment of his bodily functions unless treatment is received within 24 hours of onset.

Appendix B – An Illustration of Reasonable & Customary (R&C)

Melanie had fallen a week ago when she was rollerblading in the park.

She was in pain and went to the A&E, had her X-rays taken, and is required to see a specialist.

The Specialist scheduled Melanie for a minor surgery to fix her ankle a week later.

What is the cost Melanie has to bear if she seeks treatment in Singapore and activate LOG Plus or if she did not activate LOG Plus , refer to scenario 1 and 2:

Scenario 1 :		Scenario 2:
Melanie sought treatment in Singapore and activated the AIA LOG Plus prior to hospitalization		Melanie sought treatment in Singapore. She did not activate the AIA LOG plus prior to hospitalisation. Melanie had gone ahead to pay and file for a claim reimbursement.
Melanie's Total bill charges	$20,000	Melanie's Total bill charges	S$22,000
R&C in Singapore	$15,000 to $21,000	R&C in Singapore	$15,000 to $21,000
Employee to bear Co-insurance (0%)	$0	Employee to bear Co-insurance (0%)	$0
Total cost borne by policy	$20,000 (100%)	Total cost borne by policy	S$21,000
Melanie's total out of pocket	$0 (0%)	Melanie's total out of pocket	S$1,000

Appendix B – An Illustration of Reasonable & Customary (R&C)

What is the cost that Melanie has to bear if she seek treatment overseas?

Do note that the reimbursement of claims will be in Singapore currency.

Scenario 3 :

Melanie decides to seek treatment overseas

Melanie's Total bill charges	S$27,000
R&C in Singapore	$15,000 to $21,000
Employee to bear Co-insurance (20%) for overseas treatment	$4,400
Total cost borne by policy	S$21,000
Melanie's total out of pocket	$5,000 ($4,400 + $600) 20% co-insurance + amount exceeding the highest range of usual cost.

The Reasonable & Customary clause does not apply for overseas emergency treatment.

“Emergency” shall mean, non-routine services or treatment rendered for a serious medical condition resulting from Injury or Illness (as the case may be) which arises suddenly (including a sudden acute exacerbation of a chronic medical condition) and that could reasonably be expected, in the opinion of a Registered Medical Practitioner, to result in death of the Insured Person or serious impairment of his bodily functions unless treatment is received within 24 hours of onset.

Note: The above examples is an illustration only. All claims are subject to documentation submission and review.

3.5 ACTIVATE YOUR DEPENDANT ACCOUNT

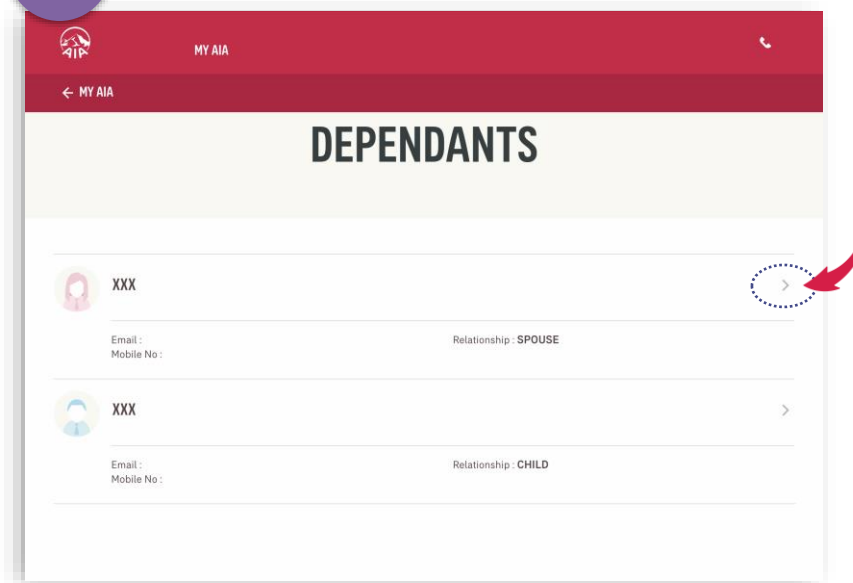

By activating your dependant account, your dependant will be able to :

- ✓ View his / her eCard
- ✓ Find a panel clinic
- ✓ Submit an e-claim
- ✓ Edit his / her profile (dependant's profile)

STEP 1 Upon login in to eBenefits portal.

STEP 2 Click on the arrow to activate eBenefits for the selected dependant.

STEP 3

Click on “ACTIVATE EBENEFITS” for the selected dependant.

STEP 4

A pop-up window will appear on the eBenefits portal. Please ensure to input a valid address for the dependant's email field.

Input your Dependant's Email address - This is a mandatory field.

Select the country code and input a valid Dependant's Mobile Number

The screenshot shows a pop-up window titled 'ACTIVATE EBENEFITS' with a close button (X) in the top left corner. The text inside reads: 'Allow your dependant to create their own eBenefits account to submit and track their claims.' and 'Your dependant will receive an email to activate their eBenefits account. Upon activation, they will receive an OTP via SMS to login.' The form has two main input sections: 'Dependant's Email *' with a text field (callout 1) and 'Dependant's Mobile Number' with a country code dropdown (showing '+65', callout 2) and a text field. Below these is a note: 'Note: The above contact details will be updated to the dependant's profile.' At the bottom are two buttons: 'CANCEL' and 'SEND EMAIL' (callout 3). A blue arrow points from the 'SEND EMAIL' button to the text 'Click SEND EMAIL' on the right.

4 An acknowledgement email will be sent to the registered email address.

5 Click on the link in the acknowledgement email.

STEP 5

Click on the verification link in the email, which will direct you back to AIA eBenefits.

The screenshot shows the 'MY AIA' header with the AIA logo and 'THE REAL LIFE COMPANY' tagline. The main heading is 'LOGIN TO EBENEFITS'. On the left, instructions state: 'Enter UserID: <Email address which you have provided for the eBenefits Dependant activation>' and 'Enter Password: <1st 4 characters of your Identification Number><DDMM of your Birthdate>'. On the right, there are input fields for 'User ID' and 'Password', followed by a red 'LOGIN' button. Below the button are links for 'Forgot Password', 'Forgot User ID', and 'New User Registration'.

STEP 6

A One-Time Passcode (OTP) will be triggered to the provided dependant's mobile no. If the dependant account is activated without a mobile number, a popup window will appear to prompt member to provide his / her mobile number when he / she first login with his / her user ID and password.

The screenshot shows a dark-themed background with a 'ONE TIME PASSWORD' popup window. The popup has a red header with a close 'X' icon. The message inside says: 'A One-Time Password (OTP) has been sent to your mobile number: xxxxx-9310. Please enter your OTP below and click CONFIRM.' Below the message is an input field for the OTP and a 'Resent (52)' link. At the bottom of the popup is a red 'CONFIRM' button. In the background, the 'AIA SINGAPORE' header is visible, along with a 'New Password' section that has a note: '(Password must be at least 9 to 20 characters with a mixture of least one upper case letter and one lower case letter and one special character)' and a masked password input field.

STEP 7

Upon the first login, your dependant will be directed to the USER PROFILE page where he / she will be prompted to change his / her password and after which he / she has completed the activation of dependant account.
